JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM
ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of: Ninety-seven (97) months.

This term consists of 97 months on Counts 2 and 10, to be served concurrently to each other, and concurrently to the undischarged term of imprisonment in Los Angeles County Superior Court Case No. BA332739.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of five (5) years. This term consists of five (5) years on each of Counts 2 and 10 of the First Superseding Indictment, all such terms to run concurrently under the following terms and conditions:

2. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, not to exceed eight tests per month, as directed by the Probation Officer;
3. The defendant shall participate in an outpatient substance abuse treatment and counseling program that includes urinalysis, breath, and/or sweat patch testing, as directed by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall abstain from using illicit drugs and alcohol, and abusing prescription medications during the period of supervision;
4. During the course of supervision, the Probation Officer, with the agreement of the defendant and defense counsel, may place the defendant in a residential drug treatment program approved by the United States Probation Office for treatment of narcotic addiction or drug dependency, which may include counseling and testing, to determine if the defendant has reverted to the use of drugs, and the defendant shall reside in the treatment program until discharged by the Program Director and Probation Officer;

5. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of treating the defendant's drug or alcohol dependency to the aftercare contractor during the period of community supervision, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3672. The defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer;
6. During the period of community supervision the defendant shall pay the special assessment in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment;
7. When not employed or excused by the Probation Officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons, the defendant shall perform 20 hours of community service per week as directed by the Probation Officer;
8. The defendant may not associate with anyone known to him to be a Drew Street or Avenues gang member and others known to him to be participants in the Drew Street or Avenues gang's criminal activities, with the exception of his family members, Francisco Real, Maria Leon, Nicholas Real, Jesus Martinez, Jr., Eric Alvarado, Carlos Renteria, Nestor Real, Jesus Israel Martinez, William Real, Jose Alvarado, Mayra Alejandra Fajardo and Joanna Fuerte. He may not wear, display, use or possess any gang insignias, emblems, badges, buttons, caps, hats, jackets, shoes, or any other clothing that defendant knows evidences affiliation with the Drew Street or Avenues gang, and may not display any signs or gestures that defendant knows evidences affiliation with the Drew Street or Avenues gang;
9. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall not be present in any area known to him to be a location where members of the Drew Street or Avenues street gang meet and/or assemble; and
10. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $200, which is due immediately.

All fines are waived as it is found that the defendant does not have the ability to pay.

On Government's motion, all remaining counts ORDERED dismissed as to this defendant only.

To the extent defendant retained any rights to appeal, defendant advised to file a notice of appeal within fourteen days.

Court recommends to the Bureau of Prisons that the defendant be evaluated for placement into a 500-hour drug treatment program. Court further recommends that the defendant be incarcerated in a Southern California facility.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed.
